AASU made back-to-back NCAA appearances in 2002-03 and 2003-04

Lady Pirates Look Forward To

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team has experienced unprecedented success over the last five seasons under head coach Roger Hodge - two NCAA Tournament appearances, five straight winning seasons and four All-Americans, but neither coach Hodge nor the Lady Pirates are satisfied with simply staying the course. The 2007-08 AASU squad has the talent and the potential to reach several goals that teams from the last five years have reached, while perhaps adding a few new accomplishments in the process.

To do so, the Lady Pirates will first and foremost look for a big senior year from WBCA Honorable Mention All-America Kaneetha Gordon (5-10, Sr., Riceboro, Ga.). The PBC's leading rebounder last season, Gordon led the Lady Pirates in scoring (15.6 ppg) as well as rebounding (11.6 rpg) and enters 2007-08 during the 2006-07 season, scoring averaging 13.6 points per game over the last five games of the season, including a 15-point, eight-rebound performance on national TV at Columbus State.

The point guard spot will also be a strength for the Lady Pirates this season with returning senior Jasmine Herron (5-3, Sr., Lawrenceville, Ga.) and redshirt junior Ashley Duhart (5-3, three years into the Lady Pirate program and bring stability to a crucial position on the floor - Herron averaged 6.9 points and 3.7 assists per game last season, while Duhart dished out 55 assists as the backup. The duo also combined for a 1.29 assist/turnover ratio.

Other returnees for the Lady Pirates from last season's squad include senior Lindsay Lieneman (5-10, Sr., Gilbert, Ariz.), who hit 24 three-pointers and averaged 4.3 points per game from her small forward position, and forward Dartayvia Thomas (5-8, Soph., Augusta, Ga.), who gained a reputation as being the Lady Pirates' best defensive player as a redshirt freshman last season Jasmine Herron (5-3, Jr., Lawrenceville, Ga.). Sophomore Jemere McCurty (5-7, Soph., Carrollton, Ga.) suffered an injury in the preseason and will have to miss this year.

One more returnee for the Lady Pirates is junior shooting guard Lindsey Holmes (5-9, Jr., Bonaire, Ga.), who last played for AASU as a freshman in 2004-

Lacey Willis averaged 8.0 points per game as a sophomore in 2006-07, including 13.6 ppg over her final five games.

Kaneetha Gordon led the PBC in rebounding in 2006-07 (11.6 rpg) and ranked sixth in the PBC in scoring (15.6 ppg).

on pace to become AASU's all-time leading rebounder, not to mention on pace to become the first player in Lady Pirate basketball history to score 1,000 career points and grab 1,000 career rebounds. Gordon played center for the majority of last season, but will move between forward and center this season.

Another player the Lady Pirates are expecting big things from this season is junior forward Lacey Willis (5-11, Jr., Dublin, Ga.), a talented offensive player who started to really shine late

An Exciting 2007-08 Season

Jasmine Herron has started all 87 games for the Lady Pirates in her three seasons at AASU and has dished out 236 career assists, sixth all-time in AASU history.

05. A long-range threat, Holmes should take over the shooting guard spot vacated by the departure of Tana Griffiths, who set the AASU single-season three-point record last season. Holmes has the potential to challenge that mark.

Coach Hodge and the Lady Pirates are incredibly excited about the crop of newcomers who join the Lady Pirates for this season. Perhaps the most significant newcomer, especially from a size standpoint, is Dutch standout Kelly Versluis (6-2, Jr., Heerjansdam, Netherlands) - a polished European offensive player who will be a huge presence in the paint for AASU. Joining Versluis in the middle is freshman Brittany Hodges (6-2, Fr., Atlanta, Ga.), a product from North Atlanta HS with a bright future.

The Lady Pirates also add a pair of local players who transfer from Florida Community College at Jacksonville, returning to the Coastal Empire area as juniors. Small forward Angela Miller (5-9, Jr., Pembroke, Ga.) and power forward Alandris Griffin (5-11, Jr., Savannah, Ga.) each excelled for the Lady Stars last season and Griffin should make an impact right away fro AASU, while Miller will be forced to redshirt this season after suffering an injury in pre-season.

Another foreign newcomer is guard Laura Raate- salmi (5-9, Fr., Helsinki, Finland), who will see time at the shooting guard position. Two more newcomers in the backcourt - freshmen Jenni Wynes (5-5, Fr., Alderson, W. Va.) and Jenea Boni (5-8, Fr., Bluffton, S.C.) - will be redshirting this season. Sophomore local product Portia Jones (5-5, Soph., Savannah, Ga.) and walkon guard Cindy Stoehr (5-7, Jr., Magdeburg, Germany) round out the newcomers for the Lady Pirates.

AASU features several challenges in its schedule, especially with the Peach Belt Conference's move to a round-robin slate with 20 league contests. The Lady Pirates will play each of the other 10 PBC schools in home-and-home series this year. AASU also travels to nationally-ranked Valdosta State for a season-opening tournament, makes a first-ever jaunt to the west coast with games at Cal Poly Pomona and Cal State Los Angeles, while also hosting Division I foe North Carolina Central and region foes Queens and Mars Hill in the Chatham Orthopedics Holiday Classic.

The Lady Pirates have been picked to finish eighth in the 2007-08 PBC Preseason Coaches' Poll. Clayton State, the league's regular season champion a year ago, has been picked to repeat, followed by Lander and Columbus State.

Roger Hodge Head Women's Basketball Coach

Roger Hodge begins his eighth season at the helm of the Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball program. The Lady Pirates continue to experience unprecedented success under Coach Hodge, stringing together five straight winning seasons for the first time in school history, advancing to two NCAA Championships berths, earning two WBCA Top 25 national rankings, knocking off a nationally-ranked team in each of his seven seasons while compiling an impressive 118-86 overall record, the best winning percentage in AASU history.

The Pirates set a new school record for three-pointers made in 2006-07, while knocking off a ranked opponent for the seventh straight year with a 74-59 win over Shaw on 11/25. Junior Kaneetha Gordon earned WBCA honorable mention All-America honors, AASU's fourth All-American in the last five seasons.

In 2002-03, Hodge put the Lady Pirates on the map regionally and nationally, leading AASU to a 27-4 record, a first-ever PBC Championship, NCAA berth and a WBCA Top 25 national ranking. He also directed NCAA Division II's best single-season turnaround that season, taking an 11-18 squad that had advanced to the PBC Tournament semifinals and improving on the record by 15 games. He followed up that season with a 23-8 campaign in 2003-04 that included the program's first NCAA Championships win, then in 2004-05, led AASU to a 17-13 mark.

The sixth AASU women's basketball coach in school history, Hodge succeeded Lynn Jarrett in 2000-2001 and was hired from Division I Liberty University, where he served as an assistant on the highly successful Flames program.

Hodge entered the collegiate coaching ranks in 1997 with Liberty University, Hodge assisted Lady Flames head coach Rick Reeves on two Big South championship squads in 1997-98 and 1998-99 and assisted head coach Carey Green in 1999-2000 when Liberty went 23-8 and captured the Big South Conference tournament for the fourth straight year.

Prior to Liberty, Hodge was an assistant coach at Mercer Christian Academy in Princeton, W. Va., and helped lead the school to the 1996 Class A state championship. Hodge also assisted at Hinton/Summers County High School from 1987-1994 and 1997, while the school captured three West Virginia Class AA State Championships in 1988, 1992 and 1994. A graduate of Concord College in Athens, W.Va., Hodge received a bachelor of arts degree in 1992. He also received a bachelor's of science degree in education with a concentration in business principles in 1997.

Hodge and his wife, Kristen, have two daughters, Madison and Emmaline, and the family resides in Savannah. Madison and Emmaline, and the family resides in Savannah.

Veronica Black Assistant Coach

Veronica Black begins her third season with the women's basketball coaching staff in 2007-08, moving from graduate assistant coach to assistant coach for Roger Hodge. Black joined the coaching staff in 2005 after playing two seasons for the Pirates.

Black played in 60 games from 2003-05 after transferring from Olney Central College, scoring 185 points and grabbing 218 rebounds at AASU. She averaged 11.9 points and 6.1 rebounds while at OCC and was an NJCAA Academic All-America nominee.

A native of Vincennes, Ind., Black received her bachelor's degree in biology from Armstrong Atlantic State in December of 2005 and received her master's degree in sports medicine in 2007. She is married to former AASU men's basketball player Tim Black and the couple reside in Savannah.

"For the past two years, Veronica has proven that she is ready for the challenge of continuing to build on the Lady Pirate Basketball tradition," Hodge says. "I have a tremendous amount of faith in her abilities as a basketball coach and recruiter. Furthermore, she has played for me as well as coached with me, giving us a great chemistry. I have no doubt that Veronica will continue to be a great asset to our basketball program."

Brittany Harmon Graduate Assistant Coach

Former Gardner-Webb standout Brittany Harmon joins the Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball coaching staff this season as a graduate assistant coach to Roger Hodge.

Harmon played for the Bulldogs from 2003-2007 and was the Atlantic Sun Conference's Defensive Player of the Year in 2006-07 and leaves the Bulldogs as the school's career leader in blocked shots with 240. The Virginia Beach, Va., native graduated in May with her bachelor's degree in biology.

"Brittany played at Gardner-Webb University under one of the most respected coaches in the country in Rick Reeves," coach Hodge says. "I believe that Brittany is a perfect fit for the completion of our coaching staff. She is a very personable young lady and will be an outstanding role model for our players. Brittany also has a solid understanding of the game and I believe our players will benefit greatly under her tutelage."

Armstrong Atlantic State University

Since its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community's educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 268-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System. The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to a 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2002.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in the College of Arts and Sciences, College of Health Professions, College of Education and School of Computing. The academic community includes approximately 7,000 students and more than 400 faculty members. Enrollment has nearly doubled in the last 15 years, from 3,700 students in 1990 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed projects include the nearly 30,000 square foot Armstrong Center for Continuing Education and Community Engagement, which opened this fall; a $5 million dollar renovation of the Lane Library; a brand new Student Recreation Facility and a 14,500 square foot Dental Hygiene clinic and Communicative Disorders Center. Campus life is abundant with Compass Point, University Crossings and University Terrace offering on-campus, two- and four-bedroom furnished apartments for 856 students.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference's basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year. Construction of a women's fieldhouse for soccer and softball was completed in the spring of 2007.

AASU sponsors ten intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. Women's soccer and women's golf debuted in 2005-06, joining men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, men's and women's tennis, men's golf and softball as sports that AASU sponsors. In 2006-07, seven of the 10 sports sponsored by AASU advanced to the NCAA Championships and for a second straight year, the Pirates captured the Peach Belt Conference's Presidential Academic Award.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Forty-three percent of AASU's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

AASU was fully accredited as a senior institution in December, 1968

2006-07 Season Review

Head coach Roger Hodge and the Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team put together its fifth straight winning season in 2006-07, an impressive task given the youth of the Lady Pirate squad as the top seven scorers for coach Hodge were all either sophomores or juniors.

The Lady Pirates also continued its tendency of playing big against big competition, knocking off a nationally-ranked squad for the seventh consecutive year as AASU defeated No. 18-ranked Shaw, 74-59, on November 25 in Savannah.

AASU certainly had its share of big competition during the year as 11 of the 29 games the Lady Pirates played came against teams that advanced to the NCAA Championships.

The early-season win over Shaw capped a three-game win streak to start the 2006-07 campaign. After three straight losses, the Lady Pirates came back with wins over regionally-ranked Lander and Florida Tech before the new year. As with most young teams, the Lady Pirates suffered up-and-down play in conference, winning four of their first five before a five-game losing streak. AASU won four of its last six to go into the Peach Belt Conference with some momentum - a stretch that included a nationally-televised contest on CSTV at Columbus State on February 24.

AASU picked up its first Peach Belt Conference tournament win since 2003-04 with a 76-63 victory over USC Upstate, a game that included a PBC Tournament-record 23 rebounds from junior Kaneetha Gordon. Gordon and the Lady Pirates then gave PBC champion and eventual Elite Eight participant Clayton State all they could handle in the quarterfinals, losing by three to the top-seeded Lakers, 73-70. That game would be the closest Clayton State would play in the postseason until the national semifinals.

Sophomore Tana Griffiths set the AASU single-season three-point mark for the Lady Pirates with 87, which ranked 7th in NCAA Division II.

Kaneetha Gordon set a PBC tournament rebound record with 23 in AASU's 76-63 win over USC Upstate on Feb. 28.

Gordon enjoyed another outstanding year for the Lady Pirates, earning honorable mention WBCA DII All-America honors by averaging 15.6 points and a PBC-leading 11.6 rebounds per game. Gordon was also named to the PBC All-Tournament team and the Daktronics All-South Atlantic Region squad during the season. Gordon is the third AASU player to lead the league in rebounding and she ranked seventh in NCAA DII in that category.

Another record that fell, this one a little further away from the basket, was at the hands of sophomore Tana Griffiths. The Aussie connected on a school-record 87 three-point baskets during the year and ranked seventh in NCAA DII by hitting 3.00 threes per game, also a school record. Griffiths finished the season as the Lady Pirates' second-leading scorer at 11.6 points per game.

Senior Sarah Brown had an outstanding year from beyond the arc, connecting on 37 percent of her three-pointers (36-of-97), setting a career high and ranking fifth in the PBC in three-point shooting percentage. Seniors Ashley Mason, Jennifer Anderson and Emily Perpich also wrapped up their AASU careers in 2006-07.

Sophomore Lacey Willis continued to improve, finishing the year with an 8.0 ppg scoring average that was third on the team. Junior Jasmine Herron dished out 108 assists and for the third straight year did not miss a start at point guard for the Lady Pirates.

As a team, the Lady Pirates ranked second in the Peach Belt in three-point baskets made and rebounding offense, while also smashing the single-season team three-point basket record, connecting on 203 during the year. That average of 7.00 three-pointers per game ranked 25th in NCAA Division II.

AASU has had winning seasons for five straight years for the first time ever Since its inception in 1991, the Peach Belt Conference has worked tirelessly to become one of the elite conferences in NCAA Division II. Now entering its 17th season with 24 national championships and 24 national finalists, the PBC has accomplished that goal.

Starting with only two championships in 1991, in men's and women's basketball, the conference has expanded to 12 championship sports with the addition of women's soccer in the fall of 2000.

The conference traces its roots back to November of 1988 when 11 schools first met in Greenville, S.C. to form a Division II conference. Following a second meeting on Dec. 3, 1989, five of those 11 schools, plus two others, formed the Peach Belt and began play in 1991.

The Peach Belt was less than a year old before capturing a national championship. The Columbus State golf team took the honor by winning the 1992 national crown, the first of three golf championships the Cougars own.

The 2006-07 season continued the tradition of excellence the conference has established. The Columbus State baseball team reached the national championship game and USC Upstate finished just one stroke out of the lead in the golf national championships.

The seven charter members of the conference were Armstrong Atlantic State University, Columbus State University, Francis Marion University, Georgia College & State University, Lander University, USC Aiken and USC Upstate. The name Peach Belt Athletic Conference was adopted in January of 1990 and modified to Peach Belt Conference in May of 2000.

Augusta State joined the conference in 1991 and UNC Pembroke became the ninth member on July 1, 1992. They were followed by Kennesaw State University on July 1, 1994, Clayton State University on July 1, 1995 and the University of North Florida on July 1, 1997. Kennesaw State and North Florida departed for the Division I ranks in 2005, USC Upstate did the same in 2007, and the conference welcomed in North Georgia College & State University in 2005 and Georgia Southwestern State University in 2006.

David Brunk was named the second PBC commissioner in May of 2007. Brunk replaced Marvin Vanover, who was the first PBC commissioner from 1991 to 2007. Brunk is charged with continuing the strong growth of the conference as its second era begins.

Dr. Dorothy Leland, president of Georgia College & State University, is the president of the Peach Belt in 2007-08.

The conference currently holds championships in 12 sports, six for men and six for women. They are men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, baseball, softball and men's golf.

Armstrong Atlantic State capped a magical 2002-03 season by knocking off host Columbus State, 56-55, in the Peach Belt Conference tournament championship game. Tishay Lewis was named the PBC Tournament MVP and Tasha Washington earned All-Tournament honors in giving AASU its first-ever PBC basketball tournament championship. The game capped an outstanding season where the Pirates set a school record for wins (27), made their first-ever NCAA Championship berth and also their first-ever DII national ranking.

AASU is 13-12 all-time in PBC Tournament games

AASU Lady Pirate Basketball Scholarship Fund

By designation, any gifts contributed to Armstrong Atlantic Women's Basketball can go to the Lady Pirate Basketball Scholarship Fund. These funds will be used to finance the education of student-athletes for years to come. An endowed scholarship can bear your name, the name of your business, or any other title, for a minimum gift of $10,000. The benefits that accompany endowing a scholarship as well as all other financial levels are listed below.

The education of the young ladies that represent our program is of the highest priority to me. Therefore, I respectfully ask that you join me as a contributor to the Lady Pirate Basketball Scholarship Fund. Your generosity will not only be greatly appreciated, but will make a difference in allowing young ladies from the Coastal Empire area and beyond to realize the dream of a college education on their way to a successful, secure future.

Lady Pirate Basketball Booster Club Options

All contributions for this specific area will be used for direct expenses of Lady Pirate Basketball. The finances necessary to run a successful NCAA basketball program are enormous. Things such as travel, community service expenditures, media materials, training equipment and uniforms are very difficult to fund due to limited resources. The gifts that you designate by joining the Lady Pirate Basketball Booster Club will be used to fund these and other necessary expenditures.

This Is Savannah

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There's something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of moss-laden trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah's founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured "pocket parks" located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there's an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of "laid back" approach to the world, a "rootedness" that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah "the most beautiful city in North America."

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including "Glory," "Forrest Gump," "Something to Talk About," "Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil" and the 2000 hit film "The Legend of Bagge Vance" starring Will Smith and Matt Damon. Also, Savannah hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by over $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000, with the Coastal Empire area population approaching 250,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in the state of Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the southeast's finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State's campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it's the lure of historical settings, the friendliness of a southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team during the 2005-06 season on the riverboat Georgia Queen, docked on the Savannah River in downtown Savannah. River street and Tybee Island both attract millions of tourists each year to the Coastal Empire area, adding to the 250,000 residents of Savannah and the nearby areas.
